COURSE DESCRIPTION AND PREREQUISITES

Although there are no required prerequisites, it is highly recommended students have an introductory microeconomics course before attempting AGECE 333—either AGRI 220 Introduction to Agribusiness Concepts or Economics 232 Principles of Microeconomics II or equivalent.

TEXTS

- Rhodes, V. James, Jan L. Dauve, and Joe L. Parcell. 2007. The Agricultural Marketing System. 6th Edition. Holcomb Hathaway Publishing Company. ISBN 978-1890871-68-0.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. To develop a basic understanding of marketing and the economic forces at work in agricultural markets.
2. To recognize and describe different participants and other economic actors (producers, processors, institutions, rules/regulations, etc.) in agricultural supply chains connecting producers to consumers.
3. To develop an understanding of how these economic forces and actors jointly determine the level of production, consumption, and prices of agricultural commodities and food products.

EXPECTATIONS OF STUDENTS

Participation: Students are expected to regularly attend class and to actively participate in discussions.

- Online Absence Reporting System (OARS) - <http://wiu.edu/oars>.

Dec 13	-	Comprehensive Final Exam: 1:00 pm – 2:50 am for Section 12 of AgEc333

GRADING POLICY

The course grade will be based on the following factors, with weightings as indicated:

Exam I	25 %	A = 93% or above	C- = 70-72.99%
Exam II	25 %	A- = 90-92.99%	D+ = 67-69.99%
Group Project	15 %	B+ = 87-89.99%	D = 63-66.99%
Quizzes and Homework	10 %	B = 83-86.99%	D- = 60-62.99%
Comprehensive Final Exam	25%	B- = 80-82.99%	F = <60%
Total	100%	C+ = 77-79.99%
		C = 73-76.99%

Grade breaking points may be lowered, but in no case will they be raised. These breaking points will be evaluated only after final numerical grades have been calculated.

Attention Education Majors: The changes within the state teaching license require all education majors to receive a grade of a "C-" or better in this course in order to meet Illinois teaching license requirements. With the university +/- grading system, receiving a "D+" or below will require you to retake this course or find a substitute course to meet School of Agriculture graduation requirements.

QUIZZES

The instructor reserves the right to use both announced and unannounced quizzes. Only excused absences will be allowed to make up quizzes. Unless it is an emergency, only absences approved in advance will be excused. It is at the discretion of the instructor as to whether an absence is excused or unexcused.

HOMEWORKS & GROUP PROJECT

Students as groups (of approximately four) will self-select a commodity to follow for the semester. Groups will prepare reports/presentations addressing the class exercise questions listed at the end of chapters in the Rhodes, Dauve, and Parcell text The Agricultural Marketing System. Other homework assignments will be individual tasks assessing comprehension of key concepts. Assignments are due at the beginning of class. Assignments will not be accepted after the problem set has been discussed in class.

EXAMS

There will be two tests and one comprehensive final exam. Exams will consist of multiple choice, short answer, and problem solving questions. Makeup exams will only be given in extreme situations.

If a student disagrees with a particular answer, it is the student's responsibility to provide a logical reason in writing as to the reason for their disagreement. This does not apply to scoring errors. All instructors are human and occasional errors in grading will occur. Please bring any such errors to the instructor's attention immediately.
