

Western Illinois University, School of Graduate Studies

Application for Graduate Assistantship

Assistantship applications will be forwarded to the appropriate academic departments. Graduate assistantships are academic merit based award programs which provide students with work opportunities in a job closely related to the academic field of study. Students with graduate assistantships will receive a stipend and a waiver of tuition. Assistantship applications received prior to MARCH 15 (for the Fall Semester) may be given priority consideration. Assistantships are available only to graduate students who have been accepted into degree programs. Probationary students are not eligible to hold graduate assistantships.

Assistantship Application Process and Instructions

Attach a statement of your personal goals in graduate study including how they relate to your future professional objectives. Also, include information about experiences or skills which may be relevant to your application, your expectations of the graduate degree program at Western Illinois University, and the reasons for your interest in an assistantship.

Three letters of recommendation are required for the assistantship, but are not necessarily in addition to recommendations required for admission to the academic program. Please check with your academic department for specific recommendation letter formats.

Please list below the names and addresses of the three persons of whom you have requested letters of recommendation. Each should be well acquainted with your educational background, intellectual abilities, and personal character.

NOTICE: Public Law 93-380, the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, grants all students the right to inspect and review all of their official educational records. This right extends to letters of recommendation written on/after January 1, 1975, except that students may waive their right to inspect and review letters of recommendation by signing a waiver. If you wish to waive your right to access letters of recommendation, please sign below.

WAIVER FORM: I, the undersigned, hereby waive the right to inspect or challenge the content and comments in my letters of recommendation provided by Public Law 93-380. I expect that the observations made shall remain between the writer and the person, agency, or organization to whom my application materials may be sent.
