Health Services Management

Department of Health Sciences, College of Education & Human Services

Program of Study

The Health Services Management bachelor's degree includes concentrations in Long Term Care Administration, Private Sector Health Services Management (hospitals, physician practices, managed care organizations, etc.), and Public Health Services Management. Health Services Management majors in each concentration take courses in Community Health and Health Services Management, Accounting, Economics, Finance, and Management. Majors complete their training in Health Services Management with a professional internship during their final academic term. The department also offers majors in Emergency Management and Community Health, with two areas of concentration—Community Health Education and Environmental and Occupational Safety—and minors in Community Health, Emergency Management, Health Services Management, and Occupational Health. It also participates in interdisciplinary programs with Women's Studies.

Our Emergency Medical Technician's Training courses are designed to improve proper emergency care to victims of trauma or sudden illness. Those in the medical field are encouraged and often required to obtain such training. Satisfactory completion results in eligibility to take the EMT state certification examination.

Faculty

Department of Health Sciences courses are taught by faculty holding doctoral degrees from distinguished universities across the United States such as Southern Illinois University, Oklahoma State University, University of Toledo, Indiana University, University of Arkansas, and University of New Mexico. All are dedicated educators, skilled in fostering active student participation. They are also active scholars and have to their credit books, chapters in books, articles, and scholarly presentations at professional conferences.

Scholarships

The department offers four scholarships for majors. All are named after distinguished former faculty members in the department: the Willis and Rosemary Zorn Scholarship for demonstration of commitment to self-education; the W. I. Taylor Memorial Scholarship for achievement in professional development; the V. F. Lowell Award for undergraduate professionalism in health sciences; and the John H. and Mary M. Leach Scholarship, which is awarded in even years to an incoming freshman. Detailed information on scholarships is available from the department advising office, (309) 298-1438; the University's Scholarship office, (309) 298-2001; or on the Web at wiu.edu/scholarship.

Honors in Health Services Management

To be eligible for the Centennial Honors College, entering freshmen must have an ACT composite score of at least 28 OR have a 26 or 27 composite ACT and be in the top 15% of their graduating class OR have an ACT composite score of at least 24 and be in the top 10% of their high school graduating class. Transfer students with at least 12 semester hours and up to 59 semester hours of undergraduate courses are admitted with a grade point average of at least 3.3 OR 3.4 for 60 semester hours or more. To find out more, visit wiu.edu/honors.

General honors seminars in the humanities, sciences, and social sciences provide students with the opportunity to explore key academic issues with distinguished faculty members. In the Health Services Management major, honors students take courses for honors credit and, as seniors, prepare an honors thesis under the direction of a department faculty member.

Special Opportunities

Our classrooms and offices are housed in Stipes Hall. The department's academic rooms include one seminar room, three electronic classrooms, and a specially supplied trauma education area. Department equipment includes health and environmental monitoring and an array of Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR), first aid, and safety learning devices.

Leslie F. Malpass Library

The library and its five branches house more than one million cataloged volumes, 3,300 current journal subscriptions, and 25 foreign and domestic newspapers. In addition, the library provides computer access to resources worldwide, including 800 other Illinois libraries with more than 22 million volumes. When necessary, the interlibrary loan program can have materials in students' hands within a day or two.

Higher Values in Higher Education

Located in Macomb (population 20,000), with a campus in the Quad Cities (Moline, IL), Western Illinois University offers a caring and supportive learning environment to more than 13,000 students in west-central Illinois. Western students have all the advantages of a large public university—strong faculty, state-of-the-art technology and facilities, and a wide range of academic and extracurricular opportunities—in an atmosphere free from distractions. Western Illinois University is a member of the NCAA and competes at the Division I level, sponsoring 20 intercollegiate sports in a broad-based athletics department. Western's presence in the Quad Cities spans more than 40 years, and Western Illinois University–Quad Cities offers undergraduate and graduate programs to more than 1,500 students. The core values that are at the heart of the University are academic excellence, educational opportunity, personal growth, and social responsibility.

Western's GradTrac and Cost programs guarantee that students can achieve their degrees within four years while paying a fixed rate for tuition, fees, room, and board.

Western Illinois University is an Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity employer with a strong commitment to diversity. In that spirit, we are particularly interested in receiving applications from a broad spectrum of people, including, but not limited to, minorities, women, and individuals with disabilities. WIU has a non-discrimination policy that includes sex, race, color, sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression, religion, age, marital status, national origin, disability, or veteran status.
