

College of Arts & Sciences
Student Speaker Series
Spring 2019

Thursday, February 21 @ 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.
Morgan Hall 101B

Kaylee Gundling (English): Beware Crimson Peak: How the Home Empowers Women in Gothic Stories

Allison Anderson (History): The Salem Witch Trials and the Political Chaos that Caused Them

Jordan Hughes (Mathematics and Philosophy): Mathematics, Teaching and Connections with the Rubik's Cube

Harley Spero (Psychology): Cell Phones and Social Intelligence

---

Wednesday, February 27 @ 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.
Morgan Hall 101B

Shea Fili (Foreign Languages and Literatures): Effects of Global Communication: Spanish Anglicisms and the Lingua Franca

Kylee Fall (Biological Sciences): The Comparison of Bone Ossification in the Forelimb and Hindlimb of Alligator Mississippiensis

Caitlen Hahn (Nursing): Critical Thinking in the Nursing Process

Alondra Cenicerros (Sociology and Anthropology): Women of Color in the Workplace

Grant Reed (Political Science): Duty Driven Democracy: Why We Need to Strengthen Student Engagement in the Era of Civic Apathy