

GEOGRAPHY DEPT. MONTHLY NEWS & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

November 2011

PUBLICATIONS

1. Marcus B ker and Jongnam Choi, 2011, "Meteorology: Forecasting the Future of Weather Predictions". In 21st Century Geography: A Reference Handbook by J. P. Stoltman (ed.). Sage Publications, Thousand Oaks, CA: pp. 13-28.

PRESENTATIONS

1. Tom Williams, 2011, "Meteorological Conditions Favorable for the Development of the St. Louis Airport Tornado of 22 April 2011". The West Lakes Division meeting of the AAG, Chicago, Illinois. November 11.

REVIEWS

1. Yongxin Deng reviewed a manuscript for International Journal of Geographical Information Science.
2. Yongxin Deng reviewed a manuscript for Applied Geography.
3. Ranbir Kang reviewed a manuscript for The Professional Geographer.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. Tom Williams served as a judge for the Student Poster Competition, and chaired the business meeting in his role as President of WLDAAG. He is now the Past-President.
2. The Severe Weather Club collected cans and raised money for "Stuff the Bus." Club members also visited Lincoln School to talk to the 3rd grade classes about winter weather. Members participating included Amy Huelsmann, Kholby Martin, Blake Pranger, Jake Vancil, Morgan ..., Andrea Myers, and Ryan Kiefer. The date was Thursday, 17 November 2011 as part of Geography Awareness Week.
3. GEOG327 (Environmental Climatology) students made a series of presentations, audience being GEOG120 (Introduction to Weather and Climate) students. This type of activities has been organized during the Geography Awareness Week since Fall 2008.