Green Happy Faces Win the Flat Jack Contest!

The results are in and the Green Happy Faces won the Flat Jack contest! It was a close race between the Green Happy Faces, the Gold Stars and the Green Stars, but in the end the Green Happy Faces had the most points. For their reward, the Green Happy Faces will be treated to lunch with the real life model for Flat Jack, WIU President Jack Thomas! All three teams submitted great pictures which can be seen in attached pdf files that accompany the E-Letter this week. Hopefully, these pdf files will also soon be available on the Honors College web page.

One More Week for In-course Honors Proposals!

You have one more week to submit your in-course honors proposals for this semester! The deadline for turning in your signed proposal form to the Honors College is 4:30 pm on Monday, September 19. You can download the blank form as a Word file from our website at: http://www.wiu.edu/centennial_honors_college/forms.php . If you don't know what an in-course honors project is, you probably don't need to do one.

SHA Meeting Monday September 12

The Student Honors Association will be having a board meeting on Monday, September 12 at 5pm here in the Honors College. All honors students are welcome to the meeting. There are several openings on the SHA Board, so if you want an opportunity for leadership, come to the meeting and get involved! If you have questions about SHA, contact SHA president Brad Fenton (BT-Fenton@wiu.edu).

Career Workshop Wednesday

The second Career Services Workshop of the semester will be held on Wednesday, September 14 at 3pm in Memorial Hall 124. The topic will be "Utilizing Social Networks." The workshop will last 30 minutes.

Mystery Photo of the Week

Apparently lots of E-Letter readers spend time near Union Station in Chicago, and could identify the scene in last week's photo (below and left) as the Chicago River. Starlet Baker and Janell McGruder both knew that the scene was in Chicago. Ginny Boynton, Brian Stadter, Atif Bukhari, Shannon Roon, and my Uncle

Leon all knew that it was the Chicago River. Brian Stadter even knew which block I took the picture from! In a previous life, he worked on a Dinner Cruise Ship from Navy Pier, so has been up and down the Chicago River many times. I believe I took this picture from the Adams Street bridge while looking south.

This week's mystery photo: Where is this bizarre looking structure, and which sports team uses it? (Hint: They are going to beat the Hawkeyes tomorrow!)

Movies Movies Movies

Good news for international and independent film lovers: The Rialto has temporarily resumed the International Film Series! To see what's coming up in the film series for the rest of the semester, go to: <http://www.earlann.net/rialtofallfilmfestival.html> . The film for next week will be Woody Allen's "Midnight in Paris" starring Owen Wilson. This film is about a Hollywood writer (Wilson) who walks around Paris at night, and believes he is transported back to the 1920's to hang out with Ernest Hemingway and F. Scott Fitzgerald. For the IMDB description, go to: <http://www.imdb.com/title/tt1605783/> . This is Woody Allen's highest grossing film ever. Showtimes will be Wednesday and Thursday at 1:30pm, 4:20 pm, 7:10 pm, and 9:35 pm. To find out what else is playing at the Rialto, go to: <http://www.earlann.net/rialtocinemas.html> or call 833-2626.

Waiting for the show to begin: Honors student Katherine Harmon found Flat Jack patiently waiting for a recital to start in the COFAC Recital Hall last week. Maybe he is friends with a Music major who has to give an Honors Recital. (submitted by Katherine Harmon)
