A Note from the Director

Western Illinois University Choirs is pleased to offer this unique learning experience for our music students and to foster this effective collaboration of student conductors, ensembles and pianists. It is especially rewarding to observe the nurturing attitude demonstrated by the University Singers and Concert Choir toward these young conductors. We sincerely hope audience members will enjoy the variety of sounds and interpretations brought forth by each conductor and choir.

Best wishes to all participants for a memorable concert presentation.

Sincerely,
Dr. James Stegall
Director of Choral Activities
