Arts Guide Presenters
Your membership in PAS brings Arts opportunities to this community! Thousands of children enjoy live performances each year, completely free of charge to their school. Fifty local junior high and high school students receive scholarships to attend the WIU School of Music Summer Music Institute. The BCA brings diverse and entertaining shows to the community.

In addition to the great benefits our donors see each year, such as preferred parking to our BCA events, members at the Sponsor Level and above will be invited to enjoy our new Family Fun Nights before select shows. Activities for the kids, themed treats and great memories are capped off with a wonderful show! Join online today at: wiu.edu/pasgiving

Art Gallery presents
The Thing Of It Is
Mark Holmes’ work sympathetically but skeptically takes up the visual and philosophical problems of reductive abstraction. Whether they are insubstantial objects on the wall or densely weighted columns, Holmes wants his sculpture to be faithful both to the weight of things, and the transience of experience.

presents

Swingin’ in the Ring

This rags-to-riches story, set in the 1930s, and told with a firm nod to the aesthetics of black-and-white movies is “a masterful production...a beautiful blend of theatre, comedy, puppetry and dance,” (Minnesota Monthly).
