

Agreement and Releases

I understand the minimum admission requirements for the program are (1) completion of Acct 201 & 202, Econ 231 & 232, Math 137, 138 or 139, Stats 171 or DS 203 and one semester of French or equivalent by August 2008, (2) a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5, (3) clearance from Student Judicial Programs, and (4) no financial or administrative encumbrances on my student account. Should I not meet these criteria, I can inquire with the Office of Global Education on how to submit an appeal. The Center for International Studies may have higher eligibility requirements.

I shall be subject to all rules, regulations, and requirements as to conduct, academic, and financial policies of Western Illinois University (WIU) as well as the national and local ordinances of the country in which I will be studying. I understand that WIU reserves the right to withdraw any student on account of unsatisfactory academic performance or unacceptable behavior.

Permission is granted to the Office of Global Education and the College of Business and Technology to review my academic record to insure my eligibility to participate in the program. In addition, I authorize the Office of Global Education to release my records to the cooperating institutions and personnel with a need to know in the WELD Atlantis program. I also grant the Office of Global Education permission to contact Student Judicial Programs regarding my eligibility to participate.

Enrollment in the program can be denied at any time. Western Illinois University complies fully with all applicable federal and state non-discrimination laws, orders, and regulations. The University is an affirmative action and equal opportunity institution and affirms its dedication to non-discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, national origin, and status as a disabled veteran in employment, programs, and services.

Health insurance, administered by the WIU Student Health Insurance Office, is required for participation in the program.

Program costs are subject to change without notice.

Failure on my part to make full payment of all required fees or to resolve other debts to either WIU or the host institution may result in the cancellation of my participation in the program and denial of future registration at Western Illinois University. I must fulfill all financial obligations to WIU before receiving grade reports, transcripts, transcripts, or a degree.

My signature on this application indicates my understanding and acceptance of the above statements and releases.

Printed name of student

Signature

Date