

"Howe to Play the Horn" MUS 550-3 STAR # 33621

Western Illinois University School of Music Summer Seminar

July 14-16, 2008      Western Illinois University

The Workshop – "Howe to Play the Horn" will include a survey of the legendary Marvin Howe's teaching philosophy, materials, methods, techniques, and music. Coupled with Marvin Howe's teaching career was his prolific writing of horn studies, horn method books and music for horn ensembles. Some of these have been standards for horn students and teachers since 1950 – others, in manuscript at the time he passed away in 1994, will be made public for the first time at this seminar!

Demonstrations and readings of his studies and ensemble music will be a regular part of the sessions.

Participants at all levels are urged to bring their horns!
