

Policy on Library Study Rooms

These rooms are intended for small groups working on collaborative projects or other similar purposes. They are not locked and may be used on a first come, first served basis. They may not be reserved. For larger study groups for registered student organizations of Western Illinois University, please see "Group Study Policy."

Group Study Rooms:

Group study rooms are available on several floors: Room 678 on 6th; Room 438 on 4th; and four rooms on the 3rd Level. Groups have priority over individuals. An individual may be asked to move if all group study rooms are in use and a group is waiting.

Individual Study Rooms:

Individual study rooms are available on the 4th and 5th Levels. These can accommodate two people. There are also several cubicles on the 3rd Level.

Revision Date: 9/03, 7/12

Approved by Dean of University Libraries