

NEW MUSIC FESTIVAL 2010

at Western Illinois University

March 8–10, 2010

Featured Composer: Michael Byron

Call for Participation

Composers are invited to submit scores for New Music Festival 2010 (March 8–10, 2010) at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Illinois. This year's featured composer is Michael Byron. We welcome proposals from composers for the performance of one work of solo, chamber, or electroacoustic music (stereo playback, with or without performers). Festival performers include WIU faculty, guest artists, and our resident faculty chamber ensembles: the Camerata Woodwind Quintet, the Lamoine Brass Quintet, and the Julstrom String Quartet. Proposals from composers who are able to supply performers are also welcome. Selected composers are required to attend the entire festival.

Submission should include:

- submission form (PDF available for download at <http://www.wiu.edu/music/nmf>)
- 1 or 2 scores, with accompanying CD/tape recordings (no web links)
- brief biography and/or curriculum vitae, with list of compositions
- program notes
- self-addressed stamped envelope for return of materials (if desired)

Postmark deadline for submission is November 13, 2009.

Send proposals to: New Music Festival 2010
School of Music
Western Illinois University
Macomb, IL 61455

For further information, contact:

James Caldwell	(309) 298-1240	J-Caldwell@wiu.edu
Paul Paccione	(309) 298-1124	P-Paccione@wiu.edu
Music Department	(309) 298-1544	(to leave a message)

<http://www.wiu.edu/music/nmf>

This program is made possible by grants from the Performing Arts Society Academic Support Program, College of Fine Arts and Communication, and the School of Music.

WESTERN ILLINOIS
UNIVERSITY