

We offer our gratitude to the University's Academic Program Elimination Review (APER) Committee for their efforts.

The five-member committee, which is comprised of faculty across each academic college and the Library per the UPI contract, reviewed programs that have experienced low enrollment and/or decreased graduation rates.

The WIU Board of Trustees must vote upon final program recommendations.

Billy Clow
Interim Provost and Academic Vice President