

Joint Statement from Western Illinois University and the University Professionals of Illinois Local 4100 – Tentative Agreement for Collective Bargaining Agreement

Western Illinois University (WIU) and the University Professionals of Illinois Local 4100 (UPI) are pleased to report that the two groups have reached a tentative agreement for a new contract, subject only to legal review. Details will not be disclosed until UPI has had the opportunity to meet with its members. We look forward to working together on ratification and implementation of the new agreement. .