5:01 Casino Night

Volunteers – SRA was a huge help in getting volunteers for Casino Night. They had 9 volunteers from their student organization. According to John, all volunteer slots have been filled with a few extras for each shift.

Logistics – The layout for the tables will stay the same from last years event. Chips, dice, cards, and other game materials need to be inventoried and checked for quality before the weeks end. We have secured The Wheel again and will make some adjustments to it this year to make winning for stable. John and Jesse will go through the Casino Night material inventory to make sure all the felt is still usable and to account for other game supplies.

Decorations – Priscilla and Jake have been tasked with getting the decorations for Casino Night. Jesse will assist them on letting them know what we already have and what still needs purchased.

Prizes – Prizes are a bit of a concern right now. Jesse is contacting additional potential donors and will hopefully get back to him within the week. Jesse has also asked student organization Senators to go back to their groups once again see if there are any baskets or supplies they would be willing to donate.

Jesse would also like to remind everyone that we need to continue to spread the word about Casino Night. SGA will be tabling both this week and next to help advertise the event.

5:07 Student Organization Updates

LASSO – This Thursday they will be having another Social Entrepreneurship Salon in Riverfront 103/104 at 3:30 pm. Chief Stew from Zeke's Island Café will be speaking and bringing in food. On Saturday, April 20 from 7:30 – 10:30 pm in the Niabi Zoo parking lot, there will be an astronomy night event. On May 2 from 4-6 pm there will be an award ceremony for LAS students.

SOA – Will be holding their last professional event on April 18 from 5-6 pm. The event will be a round table with accounting professionals. Students will be able to rotate tables and ask questions. SOA will be electing new officers for next year for those positions held by graduating students.

Psych Club – They will have two guest speakers April 1st talking about psychology in the workforce. Will be holding a study lounge on May 2 for stress week.

GEMS – They will be electing new officers tonight after this meeting. SGA rep, treasurer, and secretary will be the positions up for election. Nathan will be going to his group tonight to see if they can donate a basket for Casino night. They have usually donated something similar in the past. GEMS will also talk about doing gift card prizes for the Art Show in April.

CJS – No new updates.

Esports – Tonight is the second round of the League of Legends playoffs at Paradigm in downtown Davenport. A Super Smash Bros tournament will be held tomorrow in the atrium. There will be two brackets set up, one for those you are casual gamers and one for those who are a little more competitive.

The Edge – Articles are coming out every week, so keep a look out and pick one up.

Food Pantry – Last week the food pantry put on its 3rd annual Food Insecurity Conference and had about 90 attendees at the event. Dan would like to thank SGA, Psych Club, and all others that helped organize and sponsor the event. Turn out for this year's event was great and gives a lot of momentum for future conferences to come.

SHRM – Their current president stepped down and Ashley Desplinter will take over as acting SHRM president. The only event they have coming up is their HR Alumni and Student Networking on April 26 at Riverfront Hall in room 102 and 103. Food and drinks will be provided.

SGA – Jesse would just like to remind everyone that Casino Night is next Friday from 5:00 to 8:30 and that everyone is invited.

5:15 New Business

Student organization budget packets are due this Friday by 4:30 pm.
