

From: FMPTIC <kbewley@fmptic.org>
Date: February 23, 2011 9:35:47 AM CST
To: SE.GINTHER@COMCAST.NET
Subject: Upcoming Family Matters training on MARCH 21, 2011 in METAMORA, IL

FAMILY MATTERS PARENT TRAINING AND INFORMATION CENTER

Do you understand the benefits of inclusive education? Has your child experienced meaningful participation in general education? Are you aware of supports available to make inclusion successful?

Join Family Matters PTIC and the Heart of IL Down Syndrome Association on Monday, March

21, 2011 for a FREE informational session to learn about: social aspects of inclusion; academic and literacy skills achievement through inclusion; accommodations and modifications in general education settings; and Universal Design for Learning.

Examining the Evidence for Inclusion (Including DVD Presentation of "Including Samuel")

Monday, March 21, 2011 from 5:30 - 8:30 p.m.

The Flame Restaurant
939 W Mount Vernon St., Metamora,
IL 61548

Buffet Dinner will be provided from 5:00-5:30 p.m.

Call HOIDSA at 309-712-4852 if you need directions

3 CPDUs Available for Educators

CERTIFICATES OF ATTENDANCE ALSO AVAILABLE

Registration is available on-line at <http://www.fmptic.org/> under the section entitled "register for trainings" or by calling toll-free at 866-436-7842, ext. 107.

Special accommodations must be requested by March 7, 2011

FMPTIC welcomes parents to attend this free session to gain knowledge that can be used on behalf of their own child or to help other families.

Informational sessions are open to parents, grandparents, foster parents,
caregivers, teachers, administrators,
paraprofessionals, therapists, educational surrogate parents or any interested party.

***We encourage you to forward this flyer to other interested parties*****

To see future training information visit <http://www.fmptic.org/>
under Family Matters Trainings.

FMPTIC is 95% funded by the U.S.
Department of Education
with additional support from ARC-Community Support Systems

unsubscribe.