The Center for Military/Academic Transition and Health (CMATH) can help veterans transition between service, deployments and civilian college life. Confidential telemental health services are available as well as transitional educational materials. This service is available to WIU Veterans and Community Veterans. Telemental health evaluations and treatment are provided at the WIU CMATH Office through secure video conferencing between the Veteran and healthcare providers and counselors of the Veterans Health Administration at the Iowa City VA.

WIU Campus Resources

Center for Military/ Academic Transition and Health
Seal Hall 214
1 University Circle
Macomb, Il 61455
Appt: 319-688-3405
Office: 309-298-3697

Veteran Resource Center
Wright Residence
333 Ward Street
Macomb, IL 61455
309-298-3505
VeteransResources@wiu.edu
8:00am-4:30pm M-F

Pam Rodeffer Office Coordinator
pamela.rodeffer@evn.va.gov

Robin L. Wilt Outreach Coordinator
RL-Wilt@wiu.edu

The Center for Military/Academic Transition and Health is made available through the Iowa City VA Healthcare System, the Central Region of the Office of Rural Health and the Beu Health Center at Western Illinois University