Each student was given a Beanie Baby animal. Then they were given an Inspiration template to organize their thoughts. They were then to write down five reasons why someone should pick their animal as their favorite. Finally they turned this into a persuasive paragraph. One of the animals they could choose from is pictured below.