Master of Arts in Law Enforcement and Justice Administration

Admission Requirements

Admission into the Master of Arts program requires a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited institution with at least 18 semester hours (sh) in criminal justice, law enforcement, or closely related areas. Undergraduate courses in statistics or research methods are required or waived. All students must apply and meet the general admission requirements of the School of Graduate Studies in addition to the following departmental requirements:

- Cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher OR last two years’ undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Official GRE or MAT scores (five years old or less)
- Three letters of reference (may also be used for graduate assistantship, if applicable)
- Current résumé/vita
- Writing sample 1,000 to 1,500 words in length emphasizing academic, nonacademic, and employment experiences relevant to the degree

Only those files completed with all required documents listed above and official transcripts from all institutions attended will be forwarded to the departmental graduate committee for admission consideration. Please see Graduate Catalog for additional details on file completion.

A waiver of the GPA requirement may be requested if demonstrated subsequent training and work experience justify a waiver. Students may not enroll in LEJA graduate courses unless they have been admitted to the LEJA degree program or have obtained permission from the LEJA graduate coordinator or department chairperson.

Degree Requirements

The Master’s degree in LEJA may be earned through satisfying two options: thesis or non-thesis. The thesis option requires successful completion of semester hours: 27 sh of coursework and 6 sh of thesis work. Students are allowed to take 9 elective hours as part of the 27 sh in the following departments: Educational Leadership, Law Enforcement and Justice Administration, Political Science, Psychology, or Sociology, or in other departments with the approval of the LEJA Graduate Committee. Courses should be geared toward career objectives. The thesis proposal is to be approved before research is undertaken, and an oral presentation and defense of the thesis is required.

The non-thesis option requires the same five core courses, 21 sh of electives, and the comprehensive seminar to be taken in the student’s last semester. The non-thesis option requires a total of 39 sh.

In either option, no more than 9 sh of 400G-level courses will be counted toward fulfillment of the degree requirements without permission of the LEJA Graduate Committee.

Career Opportunities

Graduates have advanced their careers through employment in the public and private sectors in policing, community and institutional corrections, the court system, criminal justice research and planning, and crime prevention. Some of the positions in which LEJA graduates are employed are as follows:

- Supervising agent in the Secret Service
- State’s Attorney Office
- Chiefs of police/other administrative law enforcement positions
- Supervisory investigator
- Supervising agent in the FBI
- Chief Probation Officer
- Warden and correctional institution management
- Court Services Administrator
Graduate courses are offered at the Illinois Department of Schaumburg, and Vernon Hills Police Departments. In Springfield, courses are offered in Chicago and Springfield. In addition to the main campus in Macomb and the Quad Cities campus (Moline, IL), courses are offered in Chicago and Springfield. The School of LEJA offers graduate courses at several locations.

Students are encouraged to travel nationally and internationally. Travel opportunities include attending criminal justice and criminology conferences regionally and nationally. Attending the annual Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences and American Society of Criminology allow students to present research, network with professionals in the field, and receive some of the latest information and research about criminal justice.

Faculty Expertise
All of the graduate faculty possess terminal degrees. Each of the faculty have extensive practitioner experience in some aspect of the criminal justice system, ranging from chief, deputy chief, investigator, probation/parole officer, attorney, prison manager, administrative specialist, and patrol officer to mention a few. Faculty members are nationally and internationally recognized for their research and publications. The faculty have actively published research on the use of force in policing and corrections, racial profiling, terrorism, crime prevention, juvenile justice issues, risk management strategies in criminal justice, administration and management strategies, substance abuse issues, criminal behavior assessment, forensics, and legal and liability issues.

Graduate Assistantship
All LEJA graduate students are eligible to apply for a graduate assistantship. Graduate assistantships are awarded through a competitive process. All full-time Graduate Assistants receive a stipend in exchange for 20 hours of work per week and a tuition waiver. Probationary students are not eligible for graduate assistantships.

Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Requirements
The School of LEJA offers the Police Executive Administration Certificate Program. The certificate program is a post-graduate experience designed to help prepare future law enforcement executives and provide further training for current executives. The certificate program requires admission into the Graduate School and the completion of 18 sh of graduate courses. Applicants must occupy a supervisory position at the time of initial enrollment.
