The Final Portfolio for English 180 validates the grade you are receiving in this class. If you pass the portfolio reading, then you will pass the class with whatever you are receiving from your instructor. However, if you do not pass the portfolio reading, you automatically fail the course.

Some examples:

If student one is receiving an overall grade of “B+” in the class and she passes the portfolio reading, then her grade of B+ will be valid as her semester grade.

If student two is receiving an overall grade of C in the class and he does not pass the portfolio reading, then the C is invalid. The student receives an automatic U for the course and must re-take ENG 180.

If student three is receiving an overall grade of “U” in the class but by some miraculous explanation passes the portfolio reading, that student will still fail the course due to her “U” grade.

DIRECTIONS:

• Choose your three (3) best papers to turn in. If one already passed the dry run, make sure it is one of the 3 you turn in (the paper with the “P” at the top of the front page). You can choose from:
  - Personal narrative
  - Reflection paper
  - Opinion paper
  - Research paper
  - Exam Essay

• Papers must be enclosed in the order that they were assigned.
• Each paper should be stapled, not paper clipped, and all the pages should be numbered.
• One clean copy of each essay is required. You DO NOT need to include rough drafts or any other copies with editing marks.
• Each paper must include a title page with the following information:

  Title of Paper
  Type of paper (reflection, research, etc.)
  Your name
  English 180 – section number

• The process sheet is provided (see attached). You must fill out this process sheet in order to have your portfolio read.
• Enclose your papers and completed process sheet in a manila envelope. Manila envelopes will not be provided for you—if you do not have one, manila envelopes are sold at the bookstore. DO NOT use open file folders.

*Follow directions carefully! If you fail to meet the above requirements, your portfolio will not be read, resulting in automatic failure of the course.
Please indicate which papers you chose, why you chose them, and what your goals for the papers were. Remember, the papers you could choose are

1 – Personal Narrative, 2 – Reflective, 3 – Opinion, 4 – Mini-Research, 5 – Essay Exam
