The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 is a federal law which provides that every educational institution receiving federal funds shall maintain the confidentiality of its student records. Certain items of information about individual students are fundamental to the education process and must be recorded. Western Illinois University is committed to protecting to the maximum extent possible the right of privacy of all individuals about whom it holds information, records or files. See full policy at: <http://www.wiu.edu/policies/arstinf.php>

I realize that my access to student information is granted because of my status as an employee of Western Illinois University. I understand my responsibilities under the law and agree to honor our students' privacy rights.

I also understand that by the virtue of my employment at Western Illinois University, I may have access to non-student records which contain confidential information. I understand that disclosure of such information may result in termination of employment.
