

Council on Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (CIA)

Meeting Minutes

Date: Friday, April, 29, 2022

Time: Meeting called to order at 11:00am via zoom conference

Present: Tom Cody, Brian Stone, Beth Wilsont, Abigail Carlin

Not Present: Davison Bideshi, Mei Wen

1. Introduction Beth Wilson to the committee
  2. Discussion on the impact of the NCAA adjusted “non practice days” to academic attendance and other areas.
    1. Most student athletes schedules were not greatly impacted as it relates to class attendance. Golf student athletes did have a notable impact with attendance due to their tournaments being midweek. Additional impacts from covid restrictions (quarantine days and required stay-home guidelines for feeling ill).
  3. Discussion on position searches in the Athletic department (Budget director, Office Manager, Assistant AD and AD). Impacts on student-athletes and relations with faculty.
  4. Discussion on how to better accommodate student athletes in a post-mandates environment in the fall of 2022. (Use of streaming technology, having athletes better communicate with instructors about missing days etc.)
  5. Discussion on upcoming NCAA guidelines for fall 2022 as they relate to:
    1. Being more accommodating to athletes that desire transfers between universities.
    2. Allowances for student athletes to receive compensation for commercial marketing.
5. Meeting adjourned with agreement to approve anything additional via email.
